

K.Micole

VISUAL BRAND STYLIST | SPEAKER | PHILANTHROPIST

K.Micole is a Celebrity Visual Brand stylist, Speaker, and Philanthropist being a master of her gift, her greatest attribute, is the ability to speak life and offer renewed hope, to broken people of all ages. Conquering the feud between other people's opinion and societal views, of who she should be, sparked a passion to reach audiences in similar situations, living life silently merely existing.

Such relatable life experiences, enables her to connect to the root of low self-esteem, and gently yet effectively cut away layers, leaving a residue of confidence in the heart of the listener, creating an atmosphere of self-transformation, reclaiming self-worth and true purpose in life. K.Micole found her strength in her struggle. People would try to put her in a box because of her having a beauty background. This didn't deter K.Micole because of her belief that there is no such thing as thinking out of the box when you realize that the only box that there is, is the one you allow yourself to be put into. We all evolve and that this truly is her evolution to put the mark that she is meant to put on the world.

K.Micole has been able to achieve her mission by hosting the K.Micole Academy, seminars and partnering with women's organizations across the country. Everywhere that she goes lives are changed by her vibrant personality and relatable life experiences. K.Micole's style will catch your eye but her words and passion will captivate your mind and spirit for a lifetime. Every woman who leaves her seminars leaves loving themselves even more and looking and feeling FABULOUS from the inside out.

Vision

K.Micole's vision is to change the lives of women and young girls through fashion, my voice, and my brand. The K.Micole brand will be a pillar in the community and around the world. Her brand will empower women to fall in love with themselves; to help them find and nurture their purpose. Her brand will also encourage families to create together, stick together, and be the best versions of themselves no matter what life brings.

Mission

Her mission is to be truly be the change she want to see in the world by helping women fall in love with their authentic and genuine selves. The K.Micole brand will focus on fashion, emotions, mental and physical well-being of women globally. The brand will put a stop to women at every stage in life feeling inadequate or not enough because of her upbringing or her current status. Her brand will help women create their own lane and get to her destined finish line.

Quote

People fail to realize my process may not look like yours, but it's still a process. Wearing make-up and looking good is how I prepare for battle with the world in which we live. My makeup is my war paint . -K.Micole

Services offered

The K.Micole brand offers a number of different services. She offers closet/mind re-hab which is decluttering your closet and decluttering the mind. When your space is free, your mind can clearly think. K.Micole offers visual styling, creative direction, one-on-one lifestyle styling, workshops self love & confidence, full image consulting, motivational speaking and keynote speaking.

Keynote topic

- Who are You Really
- 5 ways to Dress Yourself
- Purpose on Purpose
- Mindful Freedom

Core speaking topics

- Self love
- Purpose
- Life and Empowerment
- Personal Development
- Dress your body

Workshops

DRESS THE BODY I'M IN (WORKSHOP)

Do you wonder if you're wearing the right styles for your body type?

Learn:

- What is your body type
- Tricks to create balance in your shape
- How to use accessories to create a more

Flattering Look

- The styles that most flatter your body
- Which styles you should avoid

This will be an intimate gathering so you will have plenty of opportunity to get involved and get styled

Testimonials

"She's best speaker we have ever had."

"K.Micole has the unique ability to make complex subjects simple to understand."

"Her real life stories are what helped me feel like she could really relate to us."

"I learned more in 60 minutes with you than hours of time spent with anyone at a conference"

"Ms.K put together one of the best workshops that I have ever attended. I walked away with motivation and renewed energy to take back control of my life."

"K.Micole seminars was an amazing learning experience and the information she gave me a new perspective on how to truly love myself and wanting more"

Loving Me Some Me

Learning to love yourself is vital in today's society. "Loving Me Some Me" teaches every woman how to love themselves from the inside out.

Make Me Over Again

After erasing everything that hides the true beauty of a woman K.Micole goes into "Make Me Over Again." This class teaches the participants how to add to their beauty with the help of makeup, clothes, and accessories.

Wardrobe Re-Do

Wardrobe Re-Do" allows participants to look through magazines and pick out the looks that they want to achieve.

Blah To Bomb Wardrobe Workshop

Do you feel like you never have anything to wear in your wardrobe, bored with your clothes and unsure what to wear on the weekend? Do you feel frustrated about spending money on pieces that can only be worn one way? Are you feeling limited in your ability to mix and match the pieces in your closet? Do you cringe when you have to find something to wear?

How to build a Blah to Bomb wardrobe

The secret to spotting an item that can be worn seven days a week

The top ten pieces you need to build the foundation for a work to weekend wardrobe

Creative ideas for mixing and matching the pieces in your closet

How to organize your closet for maximum versatility

Contact info

Thekmicole@gmail.com

 @thekmicole

 iamkmicole

